

"HEIMLICH"

Written by Danny Behar

INT. BAR

HENRY HEIMLICH

Ok so I'm raw dogging this girl, right? Fucking her like crazy...

CHARLES

Yeah?

HENRY HEIMLICH

She's saying all this wild shit
like "pull my hair" and "give to me
daddy" but then out of nowhere
she's like "CHOK ME!"

CHARLES

She asked you to choke her?

HENRY HEIMLICH

Yeah.

CHARLES

So what'd you do?

HENRY HEIMLICH

I pulled out, put back on my clothes, and I left. I'm a man of many maneuvers, but choking people just isn't one of them.

CHARLES

Wow. That's quite a story, Henry
Heimlich, inventor of the Heimlich
Maneuver, which can prevent people from choking in case of emergency.

FADE TO:

INT. DINER

Cindy and Kelly are eating food.

KELLY

Ok so I'm getting raw dogged by this guy, right? We're fucking like crazy.

CINDY

Yeah

KELLY

And I'm saying all this wild shit like "pull my hair" and "give it to me daddy" and then I ask him to CHOKE ME.

CINDY

And what did he do?

KELLY

He pulled out, put back on his clothes, and left. He got really freaked out or something. I don't know why.

CINDY

Really? He jus-

Cindy starts choking.

Henry enters.

HENRY HEIMLICH

Kelly!

KELLY

Henry?

HENRY HEIMLICH

Hi. I'm... I'm sorry about the other night. I think I owe you an apology. You see, several years ago I invented a lifesaving maneuver and subsequently named it after myself. The other night, I panicked because... well there's no easy way to put this but I kind of have a reputation for helping people breathe, not preventing them. I know you probably don't want to see me again so it's totally fine if we just go our separate ways, but I just figured, what the hell. Life is short. If for some reason you'll give me another chance, I'd be the happiest man alive.

Cindy is still choking. Henry sees.

HENRY

Hey babe, is that chick over there ok?

BLACKOUT.
